

Sanguine

ESTATE

Vintage: 2005

Variety: Shiraz

Silver

Show: 2009 International Wine & Spirits Competition (London)

94/100

★★★★

Reviewer: James Halliday

Publication: Australian Wine Companion 2008

“Extremely rich, dense and concentrated in the main Heathcote style.: blackberry, liquorice, plum and spice: fine but lingering tannins: hard to deny. Screwcap. 14.8% alcohol. Rating 94. To 2030”

93/100

★★★★★

Reviewer: Huon Hooke

Publication: Gourmet Traveller April/May 2008

Top 100 New Release Wines

“This is a full-bodied, rich, deep and concentrated shiraz from Heathcote with an array of black olive, blackberry and slightly jammy flavours. It’s plush and fleshy, well structured and supported by ripe tannins. The yum factor is high. 10+”

93/100

Reviewer: Huon Hooke

Publication: Good Living, Sydney Morning Herald Feb 08

For the Cellar

“A full-bodied, rich, deep and concentrated shiraz from Heathcote with an array of black olive, blackberry and slightly jammy flavours. It’s plush and fleshy, well structured and supported by ripe tannins. The yum factor is high.”

Sanguine

ESTATE

Vintage: 2005

Variety: Shiraz

17.5 / 20

Reviewer: *Jancis
Robinson MW*

Publication:
www.jancisrobinson.com

“17.5 Drink 2008-14

Round, easy, very confident and user-friendly – no rough edges and yet lots of spicy personality. A good emissary for this Central Victorian region. 14%”

17 / 20

& TOP 50 of The Visy 2007 Great Australia Shiraz Challenge
Silver medal

A record of over 400 Shiraz wines were entered in this challenge with vintages ranging from 2000 to 2006 and our 2005 Shiraz achieved the equal 12th highest score and there were only 26 wines ahead of us based on score. In terms of number of wines with an equal or above score, we were within the top 40.

OTHER ACCOLADES:

Wine of choice for the Derby Day Winners Marquee (Nov 07)

One of the owners of Kibbutz (last years Derby Day winner), Mr Simon O’Donnell (ex Australian Test Cricketer) chose our 2005 Heathcote Shiraz to serve in his marquee on Derby Day and Melbourne Cup.